PENSION LEGISLATION

Mr. Loud Severely Criticizes the Way Bills Are Rushed.

DECLARED A SHAME

Congressmen Sulloway, Sulzer and Miers Defend Pension Granting. Appeal of a Filipino Woman to the President.

Washington, May 24.—In the house Friday Mr. Loud of California criticized the special pension legislation as a disgrace and drew responses from Messrs. Sulloway of New Hampshire, Sulzer of New York and Miers of Indiana. In all 105 private pension bills were passed.

The house disagreed to the senate amendments to the bill to prevent false branding or marking of food or dairy products and asked for a conference. Then the house proceeded to the consideration of private pension bills.

Mr. Loud of California declared that pension legislation had gone far beyond the point of reason and had become a disgrace to this legislative body. He said it was physically impossible for the committee to consider the bills carefully, as 1169 had been reported at the session and passed within a total of 28 hours.

Mr. Loud's remarks brought out several emphatic protests. Chairman Sulloway of the committee asserted that the bill had the most careful consideration. He with Mr. Miers and Mr. Sulzer, paid glowing tributes to the old soldiers and urged the passage of the bill.

One hundred and five for private pensions, relief, etc., were passed.

Mr. Gaines of Tennessee had read the appeal of the governor of Tennessee for relief for the widows and children of the men killed in the recent mine disaster in Tennessee.

The house at 4:15 p. m. adjourned until Monday.

Washington, May 24.—A temperate and carefully prepared speech was delivered in the senate Friday on the Philippine bill by Mr. Dubois of Idaho. He confined himself almost entirely to a discussion of the commercial and industrial aspects of the Philippine question, his purpose being to show that it would be a disadvantage to the people of this country to retain the islands.

A reply to Mr. Dubois was made by Mr. Beveridge of Indiana, who contended that the development of China's resources would be of advantage in trade and commerce to the United States as to industrial development of other nations had been.

Soon after senate convened Mr. Stewart of Nevada, chairman of the Indian affairs committee, offered a joint resolution which he said met some objections of the president to the Indian appropriation bill. The resolution provided for the modification of certain provisions of the Indian appropriation bill and to the settlement of the Indian lands. The resolution was passed.

The army appropriation bill, with the message from the house asking for a conference with instructions to its conferees not to agree to the senate amendments relating to the construction of barracks and quarters at established military posts, thus striking out the appropriation for such buildings in Manila, was laid before the senate.

Mr. Proctor moved that the senate agree to the conference asked. Mr. Spooner thought the procedure of the house was admissible, and if the senate acquiesced now in the proposition made, there would be no end to the trouble which would arise.

Mr. Teller regarded the action of the house as discourteous and disrespectful. Mr. Lodge insisted the situation would breed deadlocks and controversies if the question was not met.

The conference report was not disposed of.

The senate agreed to a conference with the house on the omnibus public building bill, and Messrs. Fairbanks of Indiana, Warren of Wyoming, and Rawlins of Utah were named as conferees.

Senate adjourned to Monday.

APPEAL TO PRESIDENT.

Miss Lopez Asks Clemency in Behalf of Three Brothers.

Washington, May 24.—The senate committee on Philippines has made public a petition presented by Miss Clemencia Lopez, a sister of Sixto Lopez to the president for the release of three of her brothers of the province of Batangas, who have been taken into custody by Gen. Bell and sent to the island of Talim, where she says they are undergoing great hardships. Miss Lopez is in Boston and her petition is dated there, March 15 last. Her plea made is summarized in the following:

"Three of my brothers, Lorenzo, Cipriano and Manuel Lopez are prisoners on the island of Talim, all the property of my family has been seized and we are almost destitute. Against two of my brothers there is no definite charge, nor have any of them allowed even a court martial. My brother, Cipriano, is accused without evidence of having concealed 50 guns which he surrendered with his troops in March, 1901. Moreover, four of the superintendents of our estates have been arrested and have been inhumanely punished to make them give up these suppressed guns. My family has always been friendly with the American officials, my oldest brother, Mariano, had rendered them valuable service in pacifying several provinces, and our town of Balayan is the only permanently pacified town in the province of Batangas. The authorities in the Philippines have refused to hear us and, therefore, because of such great injustice I have come directly to you, Mr. President, to beg of you to give us justice."

The president's position in the matter was made known through the note of Secretary Cortelyou to Mrs. Mabel Bayard Warren, of Boston, under date of April 23. It reads:

"The president has received your note of the 22nd inst., and requests me to say in reply that he has gone carefully over with the war department the matter of which you write having been in correspondence with the authorities at Manila and in consultation with Gov. Taft here and that he does not think anything can properly be done. He will see Secretary Root on his return from Cuba, but there appears to be a consensus of opinion that no injustice was done."

Convicts Attempts Escape.

Terrell, Tex., May 24.—Four state convicts escaped from the convict camp near Hetty, 12 miles north of this city, Wednesday evening by running off from the guard. The men were plowing corn and the guard allowed them to get scattered somewhat, when they dropped their lines and ran off through the corn, which was so tall that it was difficult to see them. Bloodhounds were put on their trail at once, and one of the number was recaptured that night after a chase of 12 miles. Friday afternoon City Marshal J. A. Pate of Willis Point captured two more of them on McBeck creek, five miles north of Willis Point.

Shot at a Dance.

Paris, Tex., May 24.—While a dance was in progress at Boswell City, 28 miles west of Hugo, I. T., on the Arkansas and Choctaw road, a man with a shotgun walked up behind a crowd standing on the outside and emptied the barrels at two men, firing at one of them and then at the other. One of the men was wounded in the arm, which was torn nearly off and had to be amputated. The other man was shot in the back, but was not seriously wounded, the shot lodging just under the skin after passing through his clothing. Jealousy over a woman is said to have been the cause.

Mangled Body Identified.

Denison, Tex., May 24.—W. J. Call and his son, J. H. Call, arrived in the city on the Katy Flyer Friday from Loins, Tenn., to learn the particulars of the death of John D. Call, son and brother. The latter met a horrible death a few days ago one mile and a half south of Denison, being knocked down and run over by passenger train No. 5 on the Houston and Texas Central. The trunk of the deceased was examined at the union depot baggage room by J. H. Call, and evidences were found to thoroughly satisfy the father and son that the man killed was John D. Call.

Mexican War Veteran Dead.

City of Mexico, May 24.—Gen. Mariano Escobedo, one of the greatest military men of this country, who fought in the war against the Texas rebels and subsequently in the war against North American invasion, gaining successive promotions through his gallantry, is dead. Gen. Escobedo served as minister of war in the cabinet of President Lerdo, and on the accession of President Diaz he gave his hearty allegiance to his old comrade in arms, with whom he had served in brilliant campaigns in Oaxaca against the Imperialists.

Young Corbett Won.

Denver, Col., May 24.—William H. Rothwell, better known to the sporting world as "Young Corbett," Friday night gained the decision over "Kid" Broad of Cleveland O. at the end of a fast and furious fight. Broad put up a very good fight and in the ninth had Corbett groggy, but the Denver lad came back strong and finished the round fresh. The contest was for the featherweight championship of the world.

Texan Wins Oratorical Contest.

Boulder, Col., May 24.—The first interstate debate between representatives of the universities of Texas and Colorado was won by W. S. Slay and W. S. Moore of Texas, who spoke on the negative of the question: "Resolved, that the president of the United States by and with the advice and consent of the senate conclude reciprocity tariff with foreign countries along lines prescribed by congress."

Senator Carmack has made the nation laugh by aptly comparing the president to a remarkable Tennessee horse, famous in Maury county, after the war "whose natural gait was running away."

Seventy thousand mules have been purchased in Texas, Indian Territory and Oklahoma and sent to South Africa. The money turned loose for them will foot up about $4,000,000.

The wholesale distribution of strychnined meats on the streets by some unknown party Tuesday night, caused the death of several valuable as well as several worthless canines; also innumerable cats.—Hearne Democrat.

Having no further occasion for shipping mules to South Africa the British will abandon shipments from Port Chalmette, obviously of their own accord. Meanwhile it is given out that the English government has been privately advised that shipments of mules and horses to South Africa must cease. Now what a belated bluff is this on the part of administration forces! After playing into the hands of the British as long as they needed assistance, we find this palpable bid for the favor of those who sympathize with the Boer cause.

The relic hunters who carried off bits of bones and teeth of the negro burned near Longview should proceed to string them around their necks in true savage fashion. Such conduct is inspired by barbarous curiosity, and vengeance has no part in it. While we are glad to say we have had no lynchings in this section for some years, those occurring heretofore have been just plain straight out hangings, the terrible visitations of the wrath of an outraged people, but without any barbarous mutilation or ghoulis relic hunting.

DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Meeting at Courthouse—County Convention to be held June 14.

The democratic executive committee of Brazos county met at the courthouse yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was called to order by Chairman W. C. Boyett of College Station. The following precincts were represented: No. 4, Bryan, Robt. Armstrong, chairman; No. 5, Stone City, C. A. Glenn, chairman; No. 3, Kurten, J. E. Mathis, chairman; No. 7, College and Wellborn, R. R. Royall, chairman; No. 2, Harvey, C. S. Jones, chairman.

On motion it was ordered that the democratic county convention be held at the courthouse in Bryan at 2 m., Saturday, June 14, precinct chairman being allowed to call their respective precinct conventions on dates to suit themselves.

The reporter learns that the precinct conventions of Nos. 3, 5 and 7 will be held June 7, and that of No. 2, May 31.

Dates for other precincts will be given later.

It was determined to hold conventions instead of primaries, and to nominate and instruct for all state and district offices.

The test prescribed for those who participate in the conventions is, "I am a democrat and will support the ticket nominated by the convention."

It is said the mother of King Alfonso is unpopular in Spain because of her opposition to bull fights. She deserves a better country.

TO A MOCKING BIRD SINGING AT NIGHT.

Oh, so bright, bright, What distant valley of peace hast thou known, From what bright shore hast thou wondrously flown, With thy tremulous, laughing, startling note, Thy musical trill and thy golden throat, And Elysian song?

Oh, song divine! What gift from Heaven is this thine, Bird of the South, with thy warbling throat Filled with a lay from Paradise caught? With a faultless rhythm and a musical note— Spirit of light.

Oh, sweetest bird, With melody purest that ever was heard, Nature doth give thee a minstrel's art— With unstudied song thou'rt reached the heart Heavy with pain and the weight of woe That hearts can know.

Oh, weeping sprite, There creeps in thy song a note of woe Which rings like a cry from the earth below. Was it a shriek or a note of pain? Perchance it was freighted with the drops of rain The tree tops glistening through.

Thou art gone; Thy music is hushed on the breeze, That plays with the leaves of the towering trees, But carry, oh bird, a prayer of love On wings of song, to the fatter above From me below. —I. C.

PEACE WILL RESULT

Settlement of South African War Almost Assured.

THE MINOR DETAILS.

Boer Leaders Unable to Convince Some Followers of the Wisdom of Peace, but Confidence Placed in Leaders' Influence.

London, May 24.—There is every reason to believe that peace in South Africa is practically secured. How soon it will be announced depends apparently more upon the convenience of the Boer leaders than upon the inclination of the British government. The private and official advices received in London from South Africa all point to the same conclusion. The Boer leaders are unable to convince all their followers of the wisdom of acquiescence in the terms of peace.

The surmise of one well informed person places the sum total of the deliberations of the cabinet ministers Friday at a decision regarding the points of the peace agreement of entirely minor importance. Another surmise is that the cabinet has merely sent a rather mock ultimatum to South Africa, which can be used by the Boer leaders in explanation to their forces.

Were the Boers a thoroughly disciplined force, dependent upon the action of their general officers, peace probably would be proclaimed, but both DeWet and the other generals seem themselves unable to positively guarantee the degree to which their example will be followed.

The delegates at Vereeniging, according to information in possession of the war office, are fairly evenly divided, consequently extreme precautions are exercised both in London and Pretoria to prevent any premature action or report which might adversely influence the burghers.

A member of the house of commons, who is in close touch with the government, said to a representative of the Associated Press that he believed everything was settled and the Boer terms would be found unexpectedly liberal.

The Stock Exchange throughout Friday was a seething mass of brokers, who eagerly bought South African shares, while long after the closing of the exchange nearly 1000 brokers crowded Throckmorton street and did a frantic curb business on the strength of the peace outlook.

Shipment of Mules Ceasing.

New Orleans, May 24.—Every indication points to a speedy cessation of shipments of mules from Port Chalmette. It is believed that the British have been given a quiet tip and the English government has been advised that shipments of mules and horses to South Africa must cease. It is believed that abandonment of stock depot at Ladrop, Mo., and constantly diminishing shipments of mules and horses from Port Chalmette is due to the findings in Crowder's report.

It is believed that President Roosevelt has found sufficient evidence in the report to warrant the conviction that neutrality laws have been violated, and that to save the British government embarrassment has privately advised that government that shipments must cease. Once ceased there will be little practical need of publishing the report or giving out the result of the investigation. There is a report that the British government is looking for new shipping points, either in Mexico, Canada or Australia.

Senator Carmack has made the nation laugh by aptly comparing the president to a remarkable Tennessee horse, famous in Maury county, after the war "whose natural gait was running away."

Seventy thousand mules have been purchased in Texas, Indian Territory and Oklahoma and sent to South Africa. The money turned loose for them will foot up about $4,000,000.

The wholesale distribution of strychnined meats on the streets by some unknown party Tuesday night, caused the death of several valuable as well as several worthless canines; also innumerable cats.—Hearne Democrat.

Having no further occasion for shipping mules to South Africa the British will abandon shipments from Port Chalmette, obviously of their own accord. Meanwhile it is given out that the English government has been privately advised that shipments of mules and horses to South Africa must cease. Now what a belated bluff is this on the part of administration forces! After playing into the hands of the British as long as they needed assistance, we find this palpable bid for the favor of those who sympathize with the Boer cause.

The relic hunters who carried off bits of bones and teeth of the negro burned near Longview should proceed to string them around their necks in true savage fashion. Such conduct is inspired by barbarous curiosity, and vengeance has no part in it. While we are glad to say we have had no lynchings in this section for some years, those occurring heretofore have been just plain straight out hangings, the terrible visitations of the wrath of an outraged people, but without any barbarous mutilation or ghoulis relic hunting.

Exercises by the U. D. C.

At a late meeting of L. S. Ross chapter, U. D. C. it was determined to combine the celebration of two anniversaries, viz: Memorial or decoration day, (which has been heretofore observed on April 26,) and the birthday of Jefferson Davis, June 3. The celebration of memorial day was postponed because of the Dallas reunion occurring about that time.

Following is a general outline of exercises to be held at the opera house, Tuesday June 3, at 4 p. m.:

1. Instrumental voluntary.
2. Invocation by Rev. A. M. Stuart.
3. Music—Sacred chorus.

5. Music.
6. Address by Mr. Bethea.
7. Music.
8. Recitation, or reading.
9. Benediction.
10. Recessional.

Immediately after these exercises the U. D. C. and U. C. V. will go to the cemetery to decorate the Confederate graves. All the ministers of Bryan are invited to be present. All the citizens are also cordially invited to attend the exercises, and to bring flowers and assist in the decoration. A committee of ladies will go to Booneville in the forenoon for the same purpose.

PEACE WILL RESULT

Settlement of South African War Almost Assured.

THE MINOR DETAILS.

Boer Leaders Unable to Convince Some Followers of the Wisdom of Peace, but Confidence Placed in Leaders' Influence.

London, May 24.—There is every reason to believe that peace in South Africa is practically secured. How soon it will be announced depends apparently more upon the convenience of the Boer leaders than upon the inclination of the British government. The private and official advices received in London from South Africa all point to the same conclusion. The Boer leaders are unable to convince all their followers of the wisdom of acquiescence in the terms of peace.

The surmise of one well informed person places the sum total of the deliberations of the cabinet ministers Friday at a decision regarding the points of the peace agreement of entirely minor importance. Another surmise is that the cabinet has merely sent a rather mock ultimatum to South Africa, which can be used by the Boer leaders in explanation to their forces.

Were the Boers a thoroughly disciplined force, dependent upon the action of their general officers, peace probably would be proclaimed, but both DeWet and the other generals seem themselves unable to positively guarantee the degree to which their example will be followed.

The delegates at Vereeniging, according to information in possession of the war office, are fairly evenly divided, consequently extreme precautions are exercised both in London and Pretoria to prevent any premature action or report which might adversely influence the burghers.

A member of the house of commons, who is in close touch with the government, said to a representative of the Associated Press that he believed everything was settled and the Boer terms would be found unexpectedly liberal.

The Stock Exchange throughout Friday was a seething mass of brokers, who eagerly bought South African shares, while long after the closing of the exchange nearly 1000 brokers crowded Throckmorton street and did a frantic curb business on the strength of the peace outlook.

Once ceased there will be little practical need of publishing the report or giving out the result of the investigation. There is a report that the British government is looking for new shipping points, either in Mexico, Canada or Australia.

METHODIST MEETING

New Book Committee Selected to Serve Four Years.

SALARIES OF BISHOPS

Conference Adopted Measures Forming an Order of Deaconesses in the Church — Adjournment Is Placed for Tuesday.

Dallas, May 24.—In the Methodist general conference the names for members of the new book committee were submitted as follows: O. E. Brown, W. F. Dibel, John B. Bansom, J. F. Morgan, Collins Denny, R. M. Millsap, Paul Whitehead, James Campbell, J. R. Hindman and Sidney Bass. The conference adopted the recommendations and the committee named will serve four years.

The conference ratified the recommendation, including circuits in the list of worldly amusements that church members should not indulge in.

The following annual salaries, fixed by committee on episcopacy, were adopted: Bishops, $3600; superannuated bishops, $2000; widows, $1000.

The most spirited debate of the session was over the question of license preachers, and lasted for more than an hour. The conference refused to make some radical changes recommended in the minority report, but adopted the majority report, which considerably increases the jurisdiction and discretion of district conferences.

Ten thousand dollars was subscribed to the superannuated investment fund of $100,000. The announcement was made that future subscriptions to this fund should be sent to D. C. Scales, at Nashville, Tenn.

A resolution was adopted that national officers, who failed of re-election, be allowed salaries until the meeting of the annual conference, unless in the meantime they accept private employment at salaries.

The question of creating the order of deaconesses was taken up and an interesting debate was started.

In the course of the debate W. R. Webb of Tennessee, in advocating the minority in favor of the creation of the order, complimented in the highest terms the Catholic church for its order of sister of charity and the work they do.

His views were endorsed by Mr. Adams of the South Georgia conference.

The conference then ordered the previous question. The vote was immediately taken, and the minority report adopted, 130 to 38, and the Order of Deaconesses of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was created.

The present indications are the conference will be brought to a close by Tuesday.

LORD PAUNCEFOTE DEAD.

British Ambassador to the United States Dies at Washington.

Washington, May 24.—Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador to the United States, died at 6:30 o'clock this morning. About 2 o'clock a. m. he suddenly developed a very weakened heart condition, and a consultation of his physicians was called. They were unable to rally him and he died peacefully, not having regained consciousness from the sleep he fell into during the night. His family and part of the embassy staff were at the bedside when death came.

The news of Lord Pauncefote's death was brought to Secretary of State Hay to the White House shortly after 9 o'clock, and he spent some time with the president considering what action would be taken by this government.

After the conference it was announced that the president would call at the British embassy immediately after the unveiling ceremonies to offer personal condolences and to ascertain the wishes of Lord Pauncefote's family in regard to further plans. The president also sent a letter of condolence to Lady Pauncefote.

Immediately after the unveiling ceremonies the flag on the White House was placed at half mast.

Linnard will join Admiral O'Neill next week at Dusseldorf, where Lieut. Commander Potts will have his first opportunity, at the meeting of the naval congress there, of becoming acquainted with the most distinguished naval officers of the German navy.

Clara Barton Gone to Russia.

Berlin, May 24.—Clara Barton, president of the American Red Cross society, and Benjamin Tillinghast are on their way to St. Petersburg to attend the international Red Cross congress, which convenes May 29. The Russian government has arranged for luxurious free railroad transportation from the Russian frontier for Miss Barton and the other delegates to the congress.

Dead Burglar Identified.

New York, May 24.—The would-be burglar, who was shot and killed in Harlem Friday, after a running fight, in which a dozen policemen took part, has been identified as Walter Holgate of Mount Kisco, N. Y. He is said to be a member of a well-to-do family.

STATUE UNVEILED.

Americans and French Join in Ceremonies Over Marshal de Rochambeau.

Washington, May 24.—The president of the United States, joined with official representatives of the French republic in the unveiling of the statue of Marshal de Rochambeau, compatriot of Washington, and commander-in-chief of the French forces in America during the revolutionary war, Saturday. It was an event combining many demonstrations of international good will, with French sailors from the battleship Gaulois mingling their cheers with American blue jackets. French flags entwining their folds with stars and stripes and with oratory and music expressive of Franco-American friendship.

The ceremony of unveiling was fixed for 11 o'clock a. m., but long before that hour the streets were filled with marching men and with a great crowd eager to witness the exercises and review.

A battalion of French seamen arrived by special train from Annapolis early in the day, and headed by the crack band from the French battleship swung through Pennsylvania avenue to Lafayette square, where the shrouded figure of the French field marshal awaited the signal for unveiling.

American soldiers, sailors and marines already had assembled and gave their French brothers in arms a hearty welcome.

The American troops were under command of Major General S. B. Young and embraced a battalion of engineers, a battalion of sailors and marines, with the marine band, a battalion of cavalry and field artillery, and a brigade of national guardsmen from the District of Columbia, representing all the various branches of the United States military and naval service.

President Roosevelt and members of his cabinet arrived at the reviewing stand shortly before 11 o'clock and took a position immediately facing the draped figure. Alongside the presidential party sat the French ambassador, M. Cambon, General Brugere, Vice Admiral Fournier and other distinguished representatives of the French government, and also Count and Countess De Rochambeau, and Count De Lafayette, descendants of gallant soldiers who fought with Washington.

Rev. Dr. Stafford delivered an impressive opening prayer. At its conclusion President Roosevelt stepped to the front of the platform and extended a generous welcome to the French guests. As the president closed his remarks, Countess De Rochambeau drew aside the veils enveloping the figure, bringing into view the massive bronze proportions of the famous French commander, standing proudly erect with arm outstretched, directing the fortunes of war on the field of Yorktown.

A great cheer went up from the Frenchmen and Americans alike, and at the same instant the marine band broke into the inspiring strains of the Marseillaise.

As the French national hymn died away Ambassador Cambon escorted to the front of the platform the youthful sculptor, M. Hamar, who executed the statue. Then the ambassador, speaking in French, delivered a brief address.

Following Ambassador Cambon, addresses were delivered by Gen. Horace Porter, United States Ambassador to France, Senator Lodge and Gen. Brugere of the French army. Bishop Satterlee brought the ceremonies to a close with benediction, and the French and American forces passed in review before the president.

GIGANTIC SWINDLE.

France Makes Application for Two Men Connected With Frauds.

New York, May 24.—Surrounded with great secrecy application is said to have been made before United States Commissioner Shields of this city by French Consul Bruwaert for extradition papers bearing the names of participants in the recent enormous alleged Humbert-Crawford swindles in Paris and London, by which the perpetrators are alleged to have netted nearly $12,000,000.

In its inception the plot was to borrow money on the estates of fictitious New York millionaires, and was one of the boldest on record. Its operations extended over a period of twenty years, during which those participating lived in such lavish manner that it is not believed they carried away much of their gains.

Big Sum for Opium Trade.

Pekin, May 24.—A German firm has offered the Chinese government $15,000,000 annually for the exclusive rights of selling opium throughout the empire. The officials are disposed to regard the offer favorably, as it is an easy method of raising revenue. The promoters have sounded several of the ministers concerning the attitude of the officials. Outsiders consider the project impracticable, as the monopoly is impossible of enforcement if granted.

Prominent Filipino Arrives.

San Francisco, May 24.—Among the arrivals from Manila on the United States transport Buford Friday was Felipe Buencamino, former secretary of war under Aguinaldo and at present a member of the Philippine commission. He has come to this country to visit his two sons, who are students of the University of California. He will visit President Roosevelt and Mrs. McKinley.

Died of His Injuries.

Gainesville, Tex., May 24.—Frank Tice, aged 24 years, who was hurt last week at his ranch six miles north of Gainesville by a horse falling on him, died Friday at the home of Fay Jones. The deceased was a well-to-do cattle man.

They were unable to rally him and he died peacefully, not having regained consciousness from the sleep he fell into during the night. His family and part of the embassy staff were at the bedside when death came.

The news of Lord Pauncefote's death was brought to Secretary of State Hay by the White House shortly after 9 o'clock, and he spent some time with the president considering what action would be taken by this government.

After the conference it was announced that the president would call at the British embassy immediately after the unveiling ceremonies to offer personal condolences and to ascertain the wishes of Lord Pauncefote's family in regard to further plans. The president also sent a letter of condolence to Lady Pauncefote.

Immediately after the unveiling ceremonies the flag on the White House was placed at half mast.

STATUE UNVEILED.

Americans and French Join in Ceremony Over Marshal de Rochambeau.

Washington, May 24.—The president of the United States, joined with official representatives of the French republic in the unveiling of the statue of Marshal de Rochambeau, compatriot of Washington, and commander-in-chief of the French forces in America during the revolutionary war, Saturday. It was an event combining many demonstrations of international good will, with French sailors from the battleship Gaulois mingling their cheers with American blue jackets. French flags entwining their folds with stars and stripes and with oratory and music expressive of Franco-American friendship.

The ceremony of unveiling was fixed for 11 o'clock a. m., but long before that hour the streets were filled with marching men and with a great crowd eager to witness the exercises and review.

A battalion of French seamen arrived by special train from Annapolis early in the day, and headed by the crack band from the French battleship swung through Pennsylvania avenue to Lafayette square, where the shrouded figure of the French field marshal awaited the signal for unveiling.

American soldiers, sailors and marines already had assembled and gave their French brothers in arms a hearty welcome.

The American troops were under command of Major General S. B. Young and embraced a battalion of engineers, a battalion of sailors and marines, with the marine band, a battalion of cavalry and field artillery, and a brigade of national guardsmen from the District of Columbia, representing all the various branches of the United States military and naval service.

President Roosevelt and members of his cabinet arrived at the reviewing stand shortly before 11 o'clock and took a position immediately facing the draped figure. Alongside the presidential party sat the French ambassador, M. Cambon, General Brugere, Vice Admiral Fournier and other distinguished representatives of the French government, and also Count and Countess De Rochambeau, and Count De Lafayette, descendants of gallant soldiers who fought with Washington.

Rev. Dr. Stafford delivered an impressive opening prayer. At its conclusion President Roosevelt stepped to the front of the platform and extended a generous welcome to the French guests. As the president closed his remarks, Countess De Rochambeau drew aside the veils enveloping the figure, bringing into view the massive bronze proportions of the famous French commander, standing proudly erect with arm outstretched, directing the fortunes of war on the field of Yorktown.

A great cheer went up from the Frenchmen and Americans alike, and at the same instant the marine band broke into the inspiring strains of the Marseillaise.

As the French national hymn died away Ambassador Cambon escorted to the front of the platform the youthful sculptor, M. Hamar, who executed the statue. Then the ambassador, speaking in French, delivered a brief address.

Following Ambassador Cambon, addresses were delivered by Gen. Horace Porter, United States Ambassador to France, Senator Lodge and Gen. Brugere of the French army. Bishop Satterlee brought the ceremonies to a close with benediction, and the French and American forces passed in review before the president.

GIGANTIC SWINDLE.

France Makes Application for Two Men Connected With Frauds.

New York, May 24.—Surrounded with great secrecy application is said to have been made before United States Commissioner Shields of this city by French Consul Bruwaert for extradition papers bearing the names of participants in the recent enormous alleged Humbert-Crawford swindles in Paris and London, by which the perpetrators are alleged to have netted nearly $12,000,000.

In its inception the plot was to borrow money on the estates of fictitious New York millionaires, and was one of the boldest on record. Its operations extended over a period of twenty years, during which those participating lived in such lavish manner that it is not believed they carried away much of their gains.

Big Sum for Opium Trade.

Peking, May 24.—A German firm has offered the Chinese government $15,000,000 annually for the exclusive rights of selling opium throughout the empire. The officials are disposed to regard the offer favorably, as it is an easy method of raising revenue. The promoters have sounded several of the ministers concerning the attitude of the officials. Outsiders consider the project impracticable, as the monopoly is impossible of enforcement if granted.
